

Evelyne Tourte

Director Vice President, Information Systems Total

Evelyne Tourte is the Vice President, Information Geosciences at TOTAL SA where she manages over 170 people and is responsible for governance of Geosciences Data Management within TOTAL. Ms. Tourte created and is currently the head of TOTAL's Geoinformation "discipline" which is a community of 330 data professionals. She is a member of the Group Ethical Committee. During Ms. Tourte's 30 year career, she has held numerous positions at TOTAL as well as other companies and has held positions of senior HR and career development manager, senior executive for Oil & Gas information management, and as a scientist in applied mathematics. Ms. Tourte attended Ecole Normale Supérieure and received an advanced degree in Mathematics and a postgraduate degree in Mathematics.